The Missionary Society of the Washington-Street Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday School last year contributed to the general missionary fund of the Virginia Conference the sum of $256. The Society vill donate the collections for October to One of Don Carlos's Friends to be the same purpose; and it is intended to equal if not exceed the amount given last When it is considered that this Society furnishes all the books to the Sunday school, and bears many other expenses of the organization, the contributions to the missionary fund may be regarded as very theral. The services at the Hebrew synagogue in this city last evening and this morning incident to the solemn day of atonement were peculiarly impressive. The music was very fine, a number of ladies and gentlemen of the Christian denominations uniting with and assisting the choir.

Many of our people are now visiting the Centennial, and many others are preparing to go within the next few days. The reports brought back by those who have been o Philadelphia have induced a crowd to go from Petersburg.

TOBACCO MARKETS.

RICHMOND, September 28, 1876. Offerings at auction on 'Change for the past week 634 packages, of which 386 packages were sold at prices ranging from $1.40 to $71. Bids on 248 mokages rejected. Breaks for the week, 1,168 togsheads, 165 tierces, and 26 boxes. Offerings at auction in corresponding week of last year were 401 packages, of which 302 were sold at prices ranging from $1.40 to $70. Bids on 99 packages rejected. Breaks for that week, 380 hogsheads, 116 tierces, and 6 boxes. The following is a statement of the quantity of leaf tobacco inspected at the various warehouses in the city of Richmond during the ten months ending July 31, 1876; Hogsheads, 38,341; tierces and barels, 10,399. Net weight, 50,427,500 pounds. The loose tobacco weighed during the same period was 5,411,011 pounds.

The St. Louis Commercial Gazette of the 21st

"The same inactivity prevails in all the other markets of the country as here, and now that a considerable portion of the crop has been cut and secured from injury by frost holders appear to have lost faith in any material improvement in prices, and manifest more disposition to meet the views of buyers. Good, sound, desirable leaf, adapted to manufacturing purposes, continues in demand at very fair prices; but nondescript and unsound grades of tobacco, of which the offerings have lately been largely composed, are ruling comparatively low. Bright and sound fillery lugs in better demand. Not much doing in factory-dried shipping leaf, which is generally held above the views of buyers. Supply of medium grades, half-bright wrappery leaf in excess of demand, but fine bright wrappers scares and wanted. It is reported that the recent rains throughout our State have done much lailury to the crop, which will probably be a full average one in quantity, but somewhat deficient in quality. It is estimated that between two thirds and three fourths of the crep has already been cut."

The Richmond market last week was about as it as been for several weeks-rather dull, without any material change in prices. Good to fine sweet fillers are in better demand than any other kinds, except perhaps, fine bright wrappers, and prices for such keep up pretty well, Unsound tobacco and nonde scripts are very much neglected, and prices for such The breaks to-day comprised 214 hogsheads, 9 tierces, and 5 boxes. The offerings at auction on Change were 104 packages, of which 41 were taken in, and the remainder sold at prices ranging from $3.50 to $47. We quote: DARK.—Primings—50c.@$2.50.

The market for the week has been rather more ac tiv, and more liberal prices have been paid for working grades. Considerable inquiry for fine leaf and black wrappers, of which the market is almost bare. The shippers are doing but little, they wanting nothing but extra fine leaf or heavy prized dark lugs and medium dark leaf. Manufacturers are buying freemedium dark leaf. Manufacturers are buying free-ly. The receipts are very light, and the openings at the warehouses small. Crop of 1873.1353 312

The receip bacco of the crop of 1875, stocks of old being practically exhausted.

The sceneral inclination of the market has been in buyers favor. The favorable austices under which the crop is ripening and being gathered are operating to cause speculative boiders to union their perchases, as the chances of mishap are being diminished. No casualities or injuries have been reported from any section from frost or other causes, and the greater part of the crop has been cm. The present prospect is flast, for the growth mader amitvation, the best average results will be attained both as to the extent and quality of the product. It is of course an established conclusion that the crop will be short, though its later experiences have been such as to at least reduce the defict in some degree.

At all events, the offerings have been so liberal as to operate against sellers in some measure, and all the styles on the breaks have weakened slightly. Certain specialities, such as good cutting mgs, have ruled firm, and wrappers have not been fairly tested. Bright and dark wrappers have not been fairly tested. Bright and dark wrappers have made up of medium and fair grades of fillery and export leaf. All the latter have displayed an easy feeling, and home and regic buyers have operated with greater activity. Refections have been considerably in excess of the average, and the present disposition of holders seems to be 10 awaft a turn of the market in their favor.

of the aggregate of last week. Included in the Flour is strong and firmer, with an advance of 25c. on spring wheat extras and family for bakers' purposes. Wheat has advanced, and holds strong at $1.26 for choice; receipts better, with offerings of 2,886 bushels, and sales at $1.20@$1.25 for white, and $1.08@$1.26 for common to choice red. Corn has also advanced, and sales were made to-day at 52 @54c. for mixed and yellow; offerings of 322 bushels. Ne rye or outs offered. Country produce scarce and wanted.—Gazette, 27th.

WILMINGTON, N. C. Cotton.—Market steady; sales of 170 bales at 10%c. for midding. The following are the official quotations: Low midding, 10c.; midding, 10%c. Quotations conform to the classification of the Ame-Resin.—Official quotations: Market firm at $1.55 for strained, and $1.60 for good strained; sales of 1,000 barrels strained and good strained at quotations.

Tar.—Official quotations: Market firm at $1.50 $\frac{3}{2}$ barrel; sales at quotations and at $1.40.

Crude Turpentine.—Official quotations: Market quiet at $1.25 for hard, and $2.15 for soft and virgin; sales at quotations.—Journal, 27th. Prints, of course, went off as usual before noon. The Merrimacks were advanced to 7½c.; shirting, 7c.; thus leaving the Cocheos alone among the standards in the rear of the column.

Print cloths were firm, but very quiet, at nominally 4½c.; thirty days for extra 64-squares, but both at Fall River and Providence 5c. is asked, and there is no disposition to press sales at anything below that figure, while at the same time printers are particularly chary about giving it, and are by no means too exuitant at the rise in cloths.

There was no change with other goods relatively. Business was not so brisk certainly as it had been, but it was good, and seemed to be cheeked more by the rain than by any absolute disinclination to buy. One pleasant feature was the disposal to various particular of the control of the
